Welcome to Our Sharing Community

We are blessed that you have joined Liberty HealthShare®. We are a community of health-conscious individuals who enjoy the freedom of sharing healthcare costs and helping one another.

As a like-minded community, our membership is based on the biblical tradition of mutual aid, neighborly assistance and financial sharing. Healthsharing is unique and membership in our program is voluntary, yet our members' active participation is essential. Our members govern their own healthcare in community with others. Learning how healthsharing works and how our members support one another will help you become a vested member of our community.
